ENTRY FORM & RULES
Paul Bunyan Days Belle of the Redwoods

NAME: _____

DATE OF BIRTH _____SCHOOL _____

ADDRESS: _____

PHONE: _____ EMAIL_____

INTERESTS (Hobbies, Things you like to do): _____

_____

_____

Why do you like living on the Mendocino Coast? _____

_____

What do you see for the future of the Mendocino Coast? _____

_____

Contest Rules:

1) Contestants compete by selling raffle tickets and the girl with the highest sales will be crowned the Belle of the Redwoods during the Paul Bunyan Celebration on Labor Day weekend.
2) All contestants keep 10% of their ticket sales, and the winning Belle keeps 20%. The winning Belle receives an additional $300, second place gets $150, and third $50. Must wear Old Fashion Dress when Selling Tickets or when representing the Paul Bunyan Association at special events (such as 4th of July and Labor Day events).
3) You are responsible for any tickets assigned to you. If they are lost or misplaced you will have to pay for them.
4) You may not personally enter any bars to sell tickets, but others may sell them for you.

Signature: _____Date: _____

Signature: _____Date: _____
(Parent or Guardian if contestant is under 18 years old)

Make sure your family (special group/family category), or business is in the Labor Day Parade

President and Logging Show Chair Hal Miller
Association Vice President Dave Turner
Kidie Games & Ugly Dog Contest - Tessie Branscomb
Parade Chair Ryan Perkins

Belle of the Redwoods Chair - -Chair Tania Sousa 964-2627

Entry forms available at 234 E. Redwood (FloBeds) 964-4895 or in PDF and Word Format at www.PaulBunyanDays.com